Textbook Rental Agreement

- Rental cost may be paid by cash, check, credit card, debit card, or financial aid.
- A credit card must be used to secure a rental. Debit cards are not accepted.
- The rental is the property of the Coker University Store.
- Limited highlighting and writing in the rented textbook is permitted.
- Rentals must be returned by the date and time indicated on the sales receipt. Rentals can be returned early if rented for an 8 week class.
- Rentals that are shipped back to us must be received by the rental deadline indicated on the sales receipt. If they are “on the way” and not received by the deadline they are considered late. The Coker University Store is not responsible for returns shipped to the store via any carrier.
- Failure to return a rental by the date and time indicated on the sales receipt results in a charge to the credit card used to secure the rental the day after the return deadline. The charge is the amount required to replace the rental, minus the rental cost that was paid, plus a $25 penalty fee.
- Late rentals will be accepted up to five days beyond the rental deadline but full replacement and penalty fees apply.
- If rented materials are lost, stolen, water damaged, or returned in unsaleable condition (determined by the Coker University Store staff), the credit card used to secure the rental will be charged the day after the rental return deadline. The amount charged will be the amount required to replace the rental, minus the rental cost that was paid, plus a $25 penalty fee.
- If a credit card is declined for payment of the rental replacement fee and penalty fee, a hold will be placed on the student account until the fees are paid. A hold on a student account prevents a student from registering for classes, seeing grades, requesting a transcript, and graduating.
- If a course is dropped, the rented textbook can be returned for a full refund within the first two weeks of class. The original receipt must accompany the return.
